NEWSLETTER

Only very few Lodges in the country publish a Newsletter. Our Monthly Newsletter carried instructional and informative Masonic material and it has been brought out regularly. The cartoons carried in some of the issues were very much appreciated. The Standing Committee commends the services rendered by Bro. Dr. J. Sunil Kumar in editing the Newsletter.

Lodge168@yahogroups.com

This group ID created by all the brethren having email ID has proved to an effective channel of communication among the brethren. The summons, as well as the Newsletter, is also e-mailed to the brethren through the group ID.

<http://lodgetvm168.org> - WEBSITE OF THE LODGE

This Website is one of the oldest Websites of Masonry in India. During this year there were over 1200 hits on the site. We have been receiving several telephone calls from the brethren of foreign Lodges. And several brethren from foreign Lodges on their visit to Kerala were guided to attend various Lodges in the State. During the current year, there had been a number of enquiries expressing desire to join Freemasonry, inspired by our Website. They were all given proper directions.

A word of special thanks to Bro. Charles Sudlow of “The Lodge Of Faithful Brethren No. 77”, Lindsay, Ontario, Canada who on his own way publicised our Website among the brethren in Canada and send us a lot of Masonic information for use in our Newsletter.

Independent Lodge Mail Ids.

An initiative has been launched to provide all brethren with an independent email ID, in the format user @lodgetvm.net. A web interface is also provided for global access, which is http://mail.lodgetvm168.net. A schedule calendar and document repository that is powered by Google has also been configured.

MASONRY UNIVERSAL

Our brethren have been visiting foreign Lodges. During the current year, R.W. Bro. M. Ramaswamy Iyer, visited Lodges in the United States, W. Bro. A. S. Ben Roy, visited United Grand Lodge of England, and our Ruling Master, W. Bro. P. Vijay Kumar visited San Jose Lodge No. 10, California. And in return, our Lodge was visited by W. Bro. Norman Graham and Bro. David Williams from London and Bro. Alexander Erskin from Germany.

MISCELLANEOUS

We place on record our gratitude to the Worshipful Master and Secretary of Lodge Minchin No, 2710 E. C. for all the cooperation and assistance during the year.

We place on record our deep appreciation of the leadership and support of W. Bro. Dr. A. Devadas, Assistant Regional Grand Master.

All returns, statements, and reports to the RGL and the GLI were dispatched on time and all dues were paid promptly. All books, files, registers are being properly maintained.

The Past Masters were actively involved in the affairs of the Lodge to a great extent.

The Standing Committee has immense pleasure to place on record their deep appreciation of the leadership of W. Bro. P. Vijay Kumar and his team of officers for the year 2007.
